the College in return for the farm. (The 4-H Center offered the College $25,000 for the farm, $15,000 of which would have been contributed by Mr. Reid. The tax value of the farm is $500,000.) The committee recommended that this offer was not a good option for the college and that other opportunities should be considered in order to provide scholarship money or some other benefit to students. Therefore, the 4-H Center's offer was deemed unaccentable. The Board members deemed it
